

ASAP 13th Annual Holiday Hope Gala

Hors d'oeuvres, Buffet, Entertainment, Open Bar at the

St Petersburg Country Club

Saturday, November 7, 2009 6:30–10 PM

Ticket $100

ASAP's mission is to provide housing and basic necessities to homeless single women, men, and families through the Drop-In-Center and Emergency Shelter programs. Our focus is to guide individuals toward achievement of self-sufficiency and independent living, collaborating with the Florida Coalition for the Homeless, and local nonprofit and government agencies.

This year, ASAP will host our 13th Annual Holiday Hope fundraiser at the St. Petersburg Country Club. We need your support to make this event a success. There are several ways you can provide such support:

- Buy a $100-ticket and attend the event
- Be a Holiday Hope Benefactor, Sponsor, or Patron
- Participate in Adopt-A-Room, Shower-Of-Blessings and Feed-A-Family Programs (described below).

Programs for Success

More than 6000 people in Pinellas County are homeless. ASAP Homeless Services, a private, nonprofit, grassroots agency, has been working to solve the problem in Pinellas County for twenty-five years. It is easy for you to be a part of this effort.

ADOPT-A-ROOM PROGRAM. Adopt a room in one of our shelters. We have 11 shelter units with 43 beds. We provide shelter, food, clothing, furnishings and referrals to counseling and community resources for individuals and families - 360 people a year, 250 of whom are children. The average stay per family is 45 days. We do all of this for an average cost of less than $60/day per family, or $15/day per person.

Adopt-A-Room Program. I will donate the following amount per month for one year.

- Rooms for mothers with children, Rooms 1-5: $125 per month/per room _____
- Room for single women, Room 6: $125 per month _____
- Two-bedroom apartments for family of six or more: $200 per month/per apartment _____

SHOWER-OF-BLESSINGS PROGRAM. Our Drop-In Center provides showers, food, clothing and referrals to other agencies for more than 70 homeless people/day at an average cost of slightly over $3/day per person. Each person is logged in our computer, is provided with a warm shower, personal items, complete change of clothing, including t-shirt, underwear, socks, shoes and clothes for interviews. We have 17 bathrooms that need supplies constantly (toothbrushes, razors, deodorant, combs, etc.).

Shower-Of-Blessings Program. I will donate the following amount.

- $100 per month/per bathroom. Amount enclosed: _____

FEED-A-FAMILY PROGRAM. $100 a month is all it takes to feed one of the 11 families living in our shelter facilities.

Feed-A-Family Program. I will donate the following amount.

- $100 per month/per family. Amount enclosed: _____
